

ANNA LUTTRELL, Instructor

Anna Luttrell first fell in love with music and dance playing violin and piano, singing in choir, and dancing around her house energetically at age 5. After begging her parents persistently, she performed in her first musical at age 10 with CPTheatre(formerly CYT). At age 10, Anna began taking musical theatre dance classes and fell in love with movement. Through the last 11 years, she has gained training in ballet, musical theatre, tap, contemporary/modern, lyrical, jazz, pointe, and hip hop.

Anna began choreographing in 2022, but through that process, she quickly discovered her love for teaching dance! Since then, she has choreographed, taught, and worked professionally for companies around the Wichita and Kansas City areas. She is passionate about finding new and creative ways to explain concepts for all learning styles, striving towards excellence in a fun environment, and making dance approachable for all ages. Anna is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Music with a minor in dance at Wichita State University, and hopes to continue to teach and perform as long as possible!
