

ANNIKA LINDEMAN, Instructor

Annika Lindeman is a dancer and dance educator who has trained in ballet, tap, jazz, contemporary, lyrical, pointe, musical theatre dance, and hip hop. Annika started dancing at the age of three. After moving to Wichita, she trained at Midwest Dance Mechanix (MDM) from ages eleven to eighteen as a member of both the Competition Company and En Avant Youth Ballet Company, earning awards such as first place senior solo overall at The Moment Dance Experience in Dallas and top twelve senior contemporary solo at the Youth America Grand Prix in Kansas City. Annika was also a part of MDM's annual Short and Suite Nutcracker and eventually performed the role of the Dew Drop Fairy. Annika started MDM's teacher assistant program in 2022 and was thrilled to join the MDM team in 2024. Outside of MDM, Annika collaborates with local artists, dancing in several music videos and performances. Annika continues her education at Wichita State University, pursuing a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Entrepreneurship.
