

LYNDSEY PISKA, Instructor

Lyndsey Piska was born and raised in Wichita, Kansas where she spent many years competitively dancing for Young World Dance Studios. She spent her years there being trained in all different styles of dance, but quickly found her passion as a tap dancer. During high school, she was participating in many extracurricular activities including, dance team and newsmagazine. On the dance team, she was awarded Dance Co-Captain for her senior year where she helped choreograph different dances each week for football and basketball season.

After high school, Lyndsey attended Kansas State University where she obtained her Bachelor's in Secondary Education and a Minor in English. She participated in Greek Life, where she helped and participated in WRL during homecoming week. Lyndsey also took dance classes through KSU in her spare time.

After graduation in May of 2021, Lyndsey accepted a Middle School ELA teaching position at Saint Catherine of Siena Catholic School where she is currently teaching today. "I am so excited to be back in my dancing shoes sharing my passion of dance with my students in and out of the studio door!"
